AMUSEMENTS

"HUMORESQUE" AT THE BUTLER TODAY

After all, lavish settings and spectacular scenes are not absolute requisites for the truly great motion picture, "Humoresque," which will be the headline attraction at the Butler today and tomorrow, is among the big photoplays of the year because it impresses one with its sincerity and intense heart appeal. It is a story of human beings as they are. Tears and laughter intermingled in it as they do in real life. The story of the genius of the violin who, aided by that beautiful gift, mother-love, rose from obscurity and poverty to the heights, strikes a responsive chord in every heart.

A song that somehow catches all of life's laughter and pathos into its magic notes—that's Dvorak's famous "Humoresque." When Fannie Hurst wrote her novel of the Ghetto genius who became a celebrated violinist, she succeeded in accomplishing much that Dvorak did. Now the story has been produced as a photoplay. It was transformed to the screen with rare good taste and sympathy, with an excellent cast of players. The story was first published in the Cosmopolitan, and universally read.

CARD OF THANKS

025-41. MRS. JOHN VLOAVICH.

ROY TAYLOR was an arrival from the coast yesterday.

MRS. JACK KLINGER and MRS. ANNA MULLEN, who have been visiting in San Francisco, returned on yesterday's train.
